

WANT A FREE RV SITE IN SEWARD FOR SUMMER 2017?!

The Alaska SeaLife Center is recruiting RVers for Interpretation and Cashier volunteer positions for the 2017 season.

An RV camping space with electric & water hook ups provided!!

Applications are currently being accepted for RV volunteer positions at the Alaska SeaLife Center in Seward, Alaska - Alaska's only public aquarium.

Before volunteering you will participate in training and receive additional information on each position.

- Interpretation - As an interpretation volunteer you will help the Alaska SeaLife Center guests connect with our animals and appreciate our mission. This will be accomplished by interpreting live and static exhibits for our guests. You may also have daily interaction with education, exhibits, husbandry, and research personnel.
- Ticketing/Café Cashier – As a cashier you will be responsible for frontline customer service, ticket sales, and café duties at the Center.

Applicants must be able to provide their own camping unit. An RV site will be provided on the shores of beautiful Resurrection Bay, within walking distance of the Center. The site is in the City of Seward waterfront campground and includes water, electricity, and refuse removal (there is a $5 dump fee). In exchange the Center asks for at least 20 hours of volunteering per week per person for a minimum of 6 weeks. The volunteer positions are open from May through September. The position duration is based on acceptable performance and will be reviewed annually for renewal. Depending on the volunteer position you are appointed to, you may be subject to a background check.

No salary is provided. Please visit the volunteer page on our website at www.alaskasealife.org, click "Learn about becoming an RV Volunteer for Summer 2017!" for a downloadable application and more information. A list of benefits of volunteering at the Center is also listed on our volunteer page.

Please contact HR at (907) 224-6307, Monday through Friday between the hours of 9 am and 5 pm Alaska time, or email volunteercoordinator@alaskasealife.org for questions or more info. OPEN UNTIL FILLED!!
